DEMOCRATS ORGANIZE

Senator J. B. Sanford and District Attorney Robert Duncan, accompanied by Chairman Hutchison and Walter Brown of the county central committee, went to Hopland last Saturday evening and addressed the people of that vicinity on the issues of the campaign. This is a busy season for Hopland, yet a good sized audience greeted the speakers and the sentiment for Bell seemed strong, a number of very prominent Republicans openly supporting him. Mr. Duncan analyzed the political situation thoroughly and showed that Bell was the consistent friend of the people and urged all to support him. Senator Sanford explained his Alien Land bill at length, and denounced the political bureau known as the fish and game commission. At the close of the meeting a Bell-Sanford club was organized with a large list and the following officers were elected: President Sam Duncan, Secretary F. W. Dooley, Treasurer Tom Farrance.

Old Coaster Dies

Joseph J. Britton, and old and honored citizen of the coast, died at his home in Fort Bragg last Monday morning. He was actively identified with the early history of the redwood belt and was well known throughout the county. He leaves several children to mourn his death.

Returns After Long Absence

Breckenridge Ornbaun, the oldest son of John Ornbaun, of the Yorkville section, returned to Mendocino county last week after an absence of 24 years. He has spent the greater part of the time mining in Montana, but during the past year has been traveling over the Pacific coast considerable. He is now looking for a location with a view to settling down and will doubtless select Mendocino county.

Needless to say, he found many changes upon his return but many old friends remembered him and he spent many happy hours while in town talking with them over the days of auld lang syne.

Marriage Licenses Issued

The following marriage licenses have been reported by Cupid White since our last issue:

Sept. 29—Chas. A. Maderios, of Glenn county, and Viola Hartley, of Upper Lake;

Oct. 1.—R. W. Kirkbride, of Sebastopol, and Lola E. Stone, of Geyserville.

Oct. 3,—Frederick L. Giorgone, of San Francisco and Annie Figone, of Ukiah.

Property Near Orrs Springs Sold

H. A. Singley, the Orrs Springs sheep man and wool grower, was in town the past week on account of a real estate deal whereby he acquires 439 acres of range land adjoining him. The property was the old Greenough ranch and was owned by Mrs. Violetta Greenough. The deal was completed this week.

Law Breakers Fined

Game Warden Miller returned from a round up on the coast where he had been on a still hunt for violators of the game law. At Wendling he arrested G. Serafine and O. Ielli for hunting without a license, and A. Gasti for killing quail out of season. Each paid his little 25 bucks and was allowed to depart in peace.

Preston & Preston have had a force of men enagged the past week in the renovation of the Cooper buiding recently purchased by them. Several hundred dollars will be expended in the work and when it is finished the property, which was considerably run down, will be as good as new.

The default of the defendant was ordered entered in the divorce suit of Lenora Hanson vs. Harmon Hanson and the case was referred to the court commissioner to take testimony.

The petition of E. F. DeCamp and Rose DeCamp to adopt Wilburn Maunder, a minor was heard and granted.

The County of Mendocino paid to the court $797.20 as the amount awarded to the defendant in the case of the condemnation suit against A. Stornetta.

WE WANT UKIAH TO BE DIVISION TOWN

All citizens, tax payers and property owners living in Ukiah and vicinity, who have not already signed the following petition are requested to call at J. R. Mathews' pharmacy and do so within the next few days.

This is a matter of the utmost importance, so do not delay.

To the Northwestern Pacific Railway Company:

The undersigned, citizens, property owners and business men of Ukiah, California, respectfully petition you that Ukiah be made a division point of the railway.

We respectfully represent that Ukiah is 112 miles north from San Francisco, is the largest town in Mendocino county, and is the county seat and has a population of 3000.

At the time the right of way for the road from Cloverdale to Ukiah was procured and furnished by the people of Ukiah and vicinity, and ten acres of depot grounds at Ukiah were procured and furnished the company without cost to it.

That it was represented and promised at the time said depot grounds were so procured and furnished that the company desired 10 acres for depot grounds at Ukiah.

For the reason that when the road was extended north the company would make a division point and that ten acres was neccessary for that purpose.

We have furnished said ten acres as promised and required at Ukiah, and believing that our city is the natural and available place therefor, we respectfully ask you to create Ukiah the end of a division going north from San Francisco.

Constable Smith was down from Willits on business last Thursday.

Accident at Ten Mile

Fort Bragg, Oct. 4—Mr. Perdue and party while out hunting on Ten Mile river, met with quite a serious accident. They had stopped the team on a little side road near the bridge to let an automobile pass. Then they waited for some of the party who were off on the hunt. At last they tried to turn about to return but the horses became restive and turned short about, one of them falling and crowding the other backwards. Team wagon and all rolled into the river One of the horses was drowned almost instantly. Mr. Lyon jumped into the river and cut the harness loose and untangled the other horse, finally getting him ashore. They lost one horse and one rifle. Mr. Perdue said that had the place been fenced the accident never would have occurred.

Will Wed in Kansas City

On Sunday Miss Elaine Jones will depart for San Francisco en route to Kansas City, Mo., whither she goes to join her fiancee, Dr. Fred Clark, at present in the Kansas City Medical College. Upon her arrival the couple will be united in marriage and will depart for the Hawaiian Islands, where Mr. Clark will enter upon the practice of his profession.

Miss Jones is well known here where she has resided for several years past and she has a host of friends who will join the Dispatch in good wishes for the future happiness of both bride and groom.

Home Destroyed by Fire

Fort Bragg, Oct. 5—Sunday morning the residence of Mrs. R. D. Marsh was found to be on fire.

Mrs. Hayter jr. discovered the fire and at once gave the alarm. The fire company responded at once and was soon on the spot. The upper story was litterally gutted and much of the furniture was injured. But the lower story is still intact and the family can remain in the building. A couple of good carpenters and a few thousand feet of lumber will restore the home to its former state.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Wightman, of Cummings, were in Ukiah yesterday on land business. They came down to make final proof on their homestead in the northern country.

PRESTON LED OPPOSITION

Assemblyman Preston returned last night from Sacramento, where he went to attend the re-assembling of the legislature in special session. Preston made quite a fight against Amendment No. 1 in its original form. The amenendment provides for the separation of State and County taxation. As a result of his efforts the amendment was variously amended. The State tax on the capital and surplus of banks was raised from six-tenths of one per cent to one per cent even. The majority by which the legislature may alter rates on taxation was altered from three fourths to two thirds. It was decided to treat all counties alike in the matter of reimbursing them for losses sustained by the withdrawal of railroad taxes from the county treasuries. The amendment was then passed.

Military Roll Filed

The military roll of Mendocino county has been compiled and was forwarded to the State Brigadier at Sacramento this week. It shows that Mendocino county has 2325 men eligible to bear arms, a pretty strong regiment of fighting men.

Fire in Billiard Hall

A fire started last Sunday morning about 4 o'clock in Percy & Co.'s billiard hall and when discovered was in a fair way to develop into a big blaze. An alarm was turned in and the flames were quenched before much damage was done. The fire started near the wall in the rear of the room and is generally thought to have originated from a cigar stub that had been carelessly tossed aside.

S. Wolfenbarger, proprietor of the old Gibson place on the outskirts of town, was in Ukiah this week from his home at Stockton to see how badly his property had been damaged by the recent fire. Mr. Wolfenbarger says that from the situation around Stockton Bell will carry that section by a large majority. The stand against Asiatics is winning the farmers and laboring men to the Democratic standard in overwhelming numbers.

NEWSY ITEMS FROM WILLITS

Interesting Budget of News From Our Northern Correspondent

Willits, Oct. 4—We had a splendid rain yesterday. Not enough to do much good but sufficient to lay the dust.

Tuesday night of last week the Overland stage met with a very serious accident a few miles above Sherwood. They were going down a steep hill and the brake gave away. The stage was loaded with nine passengers and the driver and besides these had considerable mail, baggage and express. The load was too heavy for the horses to hold back and the whole outfit run down to the bottom of the hill and the stage turned over on a rock pile. Five of the passengers were injured and they were taken back to the Sherwood Inn and Dr. Blodgett went up and dressed their wounds. Another stage accident occurred last night, in the same place so it is now reported. Dr. Blodgett again went up but has not yet returned at this writing. One man is said to have had his leg broken and others are injured. The Overland stage seems to be having a cycle of accidents.

Last week threshing in this valley was finished. All told 34,994 bushels of grain was threshed, which is nearly 10000 more bushels than last year. This is the largest and best crop for about 15 years and prices are very good. In addition to our large crop a large amout of grain was cut for hay.

Wednesday night of next week Hon. Theodore A. Bell and Senator J. B. Sanford will address a meeting at Whited's hall. Posters are out, the ladies' band has been engaged, and everything points to a large and enthusiastic turnout. Both speakers are too well known to need any further introduction.

A son was born to the wife of Eugene Shelton Sept. 19th.

Rev. B. B. Conner and family returned from the Methodist annual conference last week. Rev. Conner has built a fine house of worship here and built up a large and flourishing membership. Everybody is glad to have Mr. Conner and his estimable wife with us for another year.

The contract for constructing this section of the Eureka extension will be let in a few days for the bids were opened October 1st.

POINT ARENA AND VICINITY

Point Arena, Oct. 3—Point Arena people are trying their best to improve the locality and now the development is proceeding along a new line. For some time past A. J. Paulsen has been quietly working up a proposition to start a Free Public Library in the town. Its need has been severely felt and frequently people have come to the High School to borrow books. As these books, however, were only for the pupils they could not very well be loaned to everyone, and as the necessity for a Public Library became apparent, he set out to work one up by himself.

At the present time a Reading room has been secured, estimates made to run the Library a year, and a subscription list has been started. It is headed by the Native Sons with a donation of $25, followed by the Odd Fellows with one of $15, and various sums from ten dollars down have been promised by such persons as have been seen. From present appearances sufficient money will be raised in about a week, and soon after that the Library and Reading Room will be a Point Arena institution. It is then intended to give a series of lectures along various lines and possibly a night-school may be started.

N. P. Howe is also taking a hand in stimulating activities and has offered a trophy to be competed for by the school children of the districts in this union and of Greenwood. Its purpose is to awaken interest in athletics among the children and also to bring them together, and also to draw the attention of the people in general to our schools and the pupils attending them. A committee has been appointed to arrange the nature of the contest and to fix a schedule.

Last Saturday evening much excitement was caused when Charley Carson attempted to commit suicide by running a razor through his throat. It seems that he was trying to shave himself but as the razor was rather dull he did not make a success of the job. Finaly becoming impatient he decided that it should cut anyway and therefore tried the throat. He is out of danger.

A little rain has fallen and the prospects are that there will be some more. This will help to put out some of the fires that are burning and keeping some of our people on anxious seat by approaching too closely to their homes. It will also settle the dust, which will be much appreciated by all who have any driving to do.

Hopland Notes

(From Geyserville Gazette)

The new 3,000 gallon water tank and windmill, recently erected by H. L. Purrington on his ranch, suddenly gave way Tuesday afternoon, crashing to the ground and breaking to pieces. The noise it made sounded as if an earthquake was coming to town and the water scattered in all directions. After a careful investigation it was ascertained that the mill and tank were demolished completely, not even a piece of board being unbroken. Mr. Purrington says the tank was probably too heavy for the underpinning, and had too much water in it.

Mr. S. G. Donaldson of San Anselmo, who had the misfortune to overturn his automobile a few weeks ago on the county road below town, injuring his wife and daughter, came up last week and had a team haul the badly demolished machine to the depot, where he loaded it into a car and shipped it to San Anselmo to be repaired. Mr. Donaldson reports the injured ones fully recovered.

Rev. J. D. Allen, our popular young pastor, is beginning to break up housekeeping and move to Mountain View, where he has been placed by the Conference of the M. E. church south. He leaves for his new charge next Tuesday. The writer joins all his friends in wishing Mr. Allen and his wife a prosperous and a happy future.

Ed. M. Kidd, dispenser of beverages to the thirsty, at the Hop Vine saloon, filed an attachment against the saloon for wages due him, with the result that there is one saloon less in this locality.

Duncan Springs have closed down for the winter, after a very good season. This resort is getting to be quite popular to the people who are desirous of getting a pleasant vacation and healthful mineral water to drink.

Hoarseness in a child subject to croup is a sure indication of the approach of the disease. If Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is given at once or even after the croupy cough has appeared, it will prevent the attack. Contains no poison. Sold by E. B. Gibson.

Three additions were made this week to the list of those who have been arrested for selling liquor in this neighborhood in violation of the county ordinance. Mrs. Ada Dearborn of Melburne and Hazel Nyles of this place were arrested Thursday and Mike Nolan Friday. Mrs. Dearborn and the Nyles woman have both entered pleas of not guilty and their cases have been set for October 17th. It is not known definitely but it is understood that a change of venue will not be asked for by these two parties. The cases of Nan Wyrick, Joseph Borgna and Wm. Grotz, which were transferred to Willits, probably will be heard at that place about the 12th or 13th of the month.

"These apples guaranteed free from worms," is the label stenciled on every box of apples shipped from the 100-acre orchard of the Caspar Lumber Company, five miles east of Caspar. The Company is now packing its King of Thompkins County apples, very few of which find their way to the market in San Francisco, even. They are taken by markets where they command eight and ten cents apiece at retail. Many of the trees are eighteen years old and in all that time there have never been any worms in the fruit. To experts in the business that is the greatest thing that can be said about the district in Mendocino.

Wm. Cox reports the sale of the Mahurin tract east of Pine Grove to Mr. Leahy of San Francisco. Mr. Leahy holds a municipal position in San Francicso and is a friend of Matthew Casey, who recently purchased 100 acres east of Mendocino. The place purchased by Mr. Leahy contains a good apple orchard and has considerable cleared land. Another sale made in the same locality recently was that of Mr. Colby to the Caspar Lumber Company. Mr. Colby's place consists of 160 acres, with some timber and a fine young apple orchard. There is a fine water supply on this place also.

C. S. Rollins recently picked the apples from nine King of Thompkins County apple trees on his place east of Mendocino and the fruit filled some 240 odd boxes. Mr. Rollins kept a record of one tree last year. It produced 33 boxes of apples. After such a yield one would expect a light yield the following year, but it came within one box this year of equaling the record of last year, producing 32 boxes of fine fruit.

Apples for the Watsonville show are coming in, a number of growers having already forwarded boxes to Mr. Brown, and before next Wednesday—the date when shipment will be made—there will probaby be four or five hundred pounds of choice samples on hand.

Henry Templeman, who has been succeeded as manager of the Sea Foam by Capt. Higgins, has charge of the Brooklyn and he has entered her in the Point Arena run in competition with the Sea Foam and Pomo.

Best Meat

Is always found at the City Market. C. P. Smith, the proprietor, has been in the butcher buisness in Ukiah since 1873 and knows the business from the buying of cattle to the cutting of the choicest portions for particular customers. The mere fact that he has been in business for 36 years is in itself a guarantee of the quality of meats he handles and that during all these his customers have received a square deal. Thirty-six years in the buisness also insures that he knows the men who raise choicest steers, the fattest hogs and the best sheep and he has standing contracts with them so that no matter what the weather conditions are or what the market prices may be his customers are insured the best meat at a reasonable price. If you have any doubts as to the value of 36 years experience recall the many butcher shops that have opened in Ukiah during that time and that have gone out of buisness for one cause or other. The only one left today under the same management is

A Coin Worth Millions.

Somewhere in the world—possibly among the relics kept by some lover of the great Napoleon—there is a fortune, perhaps unsuspected. Among the coins Napoleon had minted were some millions of five franc pieces, and he determined to popularize these in an extraordinary way. In one of the coins, folded to a tiny size, was inclosed a note signed by Napoleon and promising the sum of 5,000,000 francs to the finder of that particular coin. Naturally everybody who changed a large piece demanded the new five franc coins in exchange and, as a rule, probed and dug and sounded the metal in eager search for the hidden note. But the years went on, and yet the note did not appear. Napoleon's plighted word is a sacred trust to the French nation, and today the government stands ready to pay the debt, which, with interest, is now worth many millions.—London Answers.

A Grand Rout.

It is not always the largest foe who can make the greatest disturbance and cause the most confusion. In his "Hunting Grounds of the Great West" Richard Irving Dodge tells of a little incident of the Mexican war which proves that it is quality, not quantity, which is most effective.

While General Taylor's little army was marching from Corpus Christi to Matamoras a soldier of the flank of the column fired at a bull. The animal charged, and the soldier, taking to his heels, ran into the column. The bull, undaunted by the number of the enemy, followed him headlong, scattering several regiments like chaff, and finally escaped unhurt, having demoralized and put to flight an army which a few days after covered itself with glory by victoriously encountering five times its number of human enemies.

Leigh Hunt's Grave.

In the serene silence of Kensal Green cemetery, London, Leigh Hunt's body lies at rest. A visitor, reaching over the iron fence to part the fragrant shrubs that shadow the tombstone, reads these words:

"Write me as one who loves his fellow men."

It was his own cheerful philosophy of life that Leigh Hunt expressed through the lips of his Abou Ben Adhem, and the sentiment is very touching come upon in this way.

He Didn't Borrow.

A reference book on Russian history being needed right on the spot, the literary hack said he guessed he would go around to Clarke's to borrow his. He went to Clarke's, but he came back without the book.

"Didn't he have it?" the man's wife asked.

"He did, but I hadn't the nerve to ask for it. Clarke's plan of advertising book borrowers scared me off. Before I had a chance to mention Russian history he steered me past shelves where every few inches a dummy stood sandwiched in between real books. The labels on all the books were conspicuous, black lettering on white, and they set forth some mighty interesting statistics.

"'"Three Musketeers," borrowed March 25 by John Smith. Not returned.' After I had read about a dozen of those dummy labels I said it was a fine day, wasn't it. Clarke said yes, it was, and I came away. To advertise to subsequent visitors that I had borrowed one of Clarke's best books was a little too much notoriety for me."—New York Sun.

French Servants' Characters.

It is an unwritten law in France that you must never say anything bad about a servant or employee in his "character"—that is to say, if you cannot say anything good you must content yourself with a noncommittal statement which will not compromise his prospects. For instance, if you have caught your cook robbing you in such a shameful and impudent fashion that you are obliged to dismiss her you may not state on her "certificate" that you have dispensed with her services because you found she was dishonest. That, it is held, might prevent her obtaining a situation elsewhere, and as every one has to earn his bread the cook must be given the opportunity of recommencing her larceny elsewhere. All that you are entitled to say on her "character" if you will not lie and pay her compliments is that she entered and left your service on certain dates. —Paris Letter to London Globe.

Armies In Old Testament Times.

All through ancient history oriental armies had no sentinels, and thus in the Bible King Saul when he was pursuing David slept without any guard, so that David stole up to where the king lay asleep and took the cruse of water at his head with him (I Samuel, xxvi). A striking illustration of this was when Alexander the Great, accompanied by his chief officers, entered the lines of the Persian army the night before the decisive battle of Arbela and found that there was not one of the sleeping host who observed them. We can readily see, therefore, that a panic might occur by a sudden night attack on an army so carelessly guarded and that Abraham's company might easily have taken advantage of this.—Dr. William Hanna Thomson in Designer.

Thomas H. Kirk, Democratic nominee for State Superintendent of Public Instruction, is a native of Andover, Mass., and lives in Los Angeles county, California. Few educators have had a wider range of school experience than Prof. Kirk. For three and a half years he was a teacher of ungraded schools; for eight years a superintendent and principal of graded schools; for five seasons an institute instructor of the Department of Public Instruction, in the State of Minnesota; for four years institute conductor and instructor in mental and physical sciences for the First State Normal School, Winona, Minnesota; for one year institute conductor of the State Normal School at River Falls, Wisconsin; for four years and a half Assistant State Superintendent of Public Instruction of Minnesota, during which period he took a most active part in the arrangement and conduct of institutes and summer schools, and in which he has made a life study of school systems. His rare fund of knowledge, his vast experience with the practical phases of school work, his many years of continuous connection with graded, high and normal schools, all preeminently fit him for the office of State Superintendent of Public Instruction. He is both an interesting and a helpful lecturer; his experience, his happy manner; his sincere sympathy with the difficulties that confront the men and women to whose care is intrusted the future of the coming generation, commend him to the teachers.

He is regarded by all with whom he has worked as an incisive instructor, a scholar, a profound student of school affairs, and, withall, as a thorough gentleman—unobtrusive, patient, yet energetic. Every blow he strikes counts one toward the accomplishment of the object which he has in view. He is logical, a man of exceptional acumen and personality; calm in his deliberations; practical in his methods; comprehensive in his sympathies, at all times dignified and courteous. Prof. Kirk received most of his earlier education in Massachusetts. Later in life he atended a Canadian school, at Preston, Ontario. When his family moved thence to Wisconsin, and afterwards to Minnesota, he experienced all the hard labors, advantages and disadvantages, of a Middle-West farm; and during this period, except when a student of the Minnesota State Normal School at Mankato, he carried on his preparations for college. He began teaching in country schools at the age of eighteen. He received his bachelor's degree from the University of Wisconsin, from which institution he graduated in 1882, and his master's or post-graduate degree, from the same institution in 1887, for special research in American history.

Prof. Kirk came to California in 1893 to look after his interests in a ranch here. Since then, aside from some time he has devoted to his ranch and business affairs, he has been active in educational work, having held a number of important positions and aided in many prominent educational movements. Since coming to California he has lectured every year before the teachers' institutes, held in the different counties of the State, and has been recalled repeatedly by various communities to deliver his lectures on school work.

In his administrative work in Minnesota, Prof. Kirk repeatedly distinguished himself. His activities in this connection have been of a varied and responsible character, touching the State text-book system, distribution of school funds, legal questions, legislation, high school inspection, direction of summer schools and institutes, and the editing of educational reports of the department, university and normal schools.

Prof. Kirk, as active educators will remember, took a prominent part in the famous explorations and discussions relating to the source of the Mississippi river, which led to the establishment of a State park at the head of the river.

With such an able and experienced man as Prof. Kirk available for the important office of State Superintendent of Public Instruction of California, the people of the Golden State should be congratulated, and the Good Government organization of Los Angeles, although not actively interested in the political contests outside of the county, should feel extremely proud that one of its most earnest workers has been induced to enter the race for that most responsible position; and that a man of merit and practical ability, and not an ordinary politician, has received the indorsement of the State's Democracy. In the old days when machine politics absolutely controlled the caucuses and conventions, and manipulated the elections, such high offices as this frequently were made the objects of political patronage; but under the new direct primary law the machine no longer can disgrace our politics, if the people are awake to their opportunities. At any rate, the good government forces of California have an opportunity for one to elect a State Superintendent of Public Instruction who—regardless of political affiliations—is clean, competent and earnest, and who will prove an honor to the office for which he has become a candidate.

TOWN AND COUNTRY JOURNAL

will be run as it has been during the past year, by the same efficient head, Mr. Samuel E. Watson. Mr. Watson is called the best known writer on the Coast for dairy matters and is both painstaking and careful as a writer, always looking not only to the interest but honesty of his statements. We feel that in giving such a head to this department we can not do better for the people who need such work and are sure that the ensuing year will find just as valuable columns under the department of Dairy and Livestock as have always appeared during the past. Mr. Watson will have several good contributions to give variety of experience and theory along his line of work and promises to keep this department right up to the mark. It has been of distinct value to the farmer heretofore and many have written not only seeking its aid but with interest in its contents, as contributers. Mr. Watson is always glad to answer any inquiries in the direction of the dairy livestock of all kinds, or along the line of food stuffs whenever asked to do so and will in any way assist a patron of the paper.

DEPARTMENT OF POULTRY

will be this year under the management of Mr. Russell James, a practical poultry keeper who knows just what to do with poultry in every direction, one who makes a careful and keen study of the suject and will supply us with facts and daily notations of practical work now going on. This will a fine opportunity for a novice to get in touch with a good, energetic, experienced poultry keeper who knows the business thoroughly and makes a specialty of raising and marketing fowls.

We advise all interested in the raising of poultry of any sort to watch the method and take advantage of the excellent advice and wiser head in the matter of such work. Remember you are escaping your own and all of Mr. Russell James blunders of the past as well, when you carefully heed so competent a head in the line of your work. You can't afford to loose a good opportunity to learn from so good an authority when you can get it so easily.

will have a very distinct feature this coming year, far fuller for the wife and family than heretofore. It will carry good fashions from a reliable house with fashion hints and descriptions for each month and will be excellent in detail. In addition the culinary section will be better than ever and will be kept full of good, sensible and tried receipts for the table. There will be a chapter on Household Hints to which any or all may contribute at pleasure and any number of short articles both advisory and interesting for the women of the home.

We fully believe in lightening up a little on hard work and giving something to make the tired man forget a while and the wife remember to be happier. You'll be fresher for the farm, sir, when you take a bit of recreation of an evening and better for the day's drudgery. wife, when you sit down and laugh and cry a little over a good story in the comfort of the lamp-light by the evening table. We are going to run as a serial story that grand writing in the world of ficton, "Two Vanrevels" by the celebrated writer, Booth Tarkington. This should be a real treat for any one young or old, whoever is able to comprehend a story of such depth and value.

will have a separate and full department. We are great believers in the strength of home influences for the little ones and we want to see them bound closer to the hearth stones everywhere. Whenever our boys and girls find interest in anything that is about them in the home so much gain is made for their future. When the boys find pleasure and interest in what comes or goes from the farm, the problem of the farmers of our future is beginning to solve itself. We want these little men and women to enjoy the farm's papers ts doings. When you can make them glad and rejoicing to see it come into the door you've made a direct gain toward better lives ahead. It's an educator and a good healthy one too.

We're going to see that the boys have a column to themselves for games and interesting things for a by to do and stories of fun and adventure. The little folks will have a treat all their own, too, for the California story writer, Mr. Gene B. Lynch will every month this year write just for them a fascinating story that will keep them breathless. Mr. Lynch knows just what the little folks want and he will give them "The Princess of Bonnibeele Castle", "The Witch Fire", "The Elf Horse," and the "Bogiés of Ballybocan" and a lot of others as fascinating that will keep them all looking for the Journal.

We want the Journal to go into the children's hands. It's as we said an educator. We want to impress this truth on you. Its reading develops and trains a boy; its good for him.

In his great speech at Santa Barbara September 23d, 1910, Mr. Bell said:

"I promise you that if elected Governor I shall use all the power of that great office to check the invasion of our State by the yellow and brown labor from Asia. I shall not only use the influence of California to have enacted a federal law that would extend the provisions of the Chinese exclusion act to cover Japanese, Koreans, Hindus and other undesirable Orientals, but I will recommend to the Legislature the enactment of a State law that would absolutely prohibit any Japanese, Chinese, Korean or Hindoo from owning or leasing an acre of California soil. The State of California has this power, and, if I am Governor, I shall do my best to see that it is exercised.

I went into every section of the State in 1906 to arouse the people of California to their peril. I bankrupted myself to make the fight; I spent every dollar I had and went so heavily into debt that I have been these subsequent four years catching up; but I knew that some one had to sound the alarm, and my party honored me with the task. Now it has honored me again, and, proud of its unblemished record, I again ask your help.

Will you be with us, as your conscience and sense of fair play must dictate, or will you hearken to the call of a new name and listen to the repentance of those who helped to defeat the people four years ago?—Theodore A. Bell at Salinas, Wednesday evening, September 14th.

A Square Deal for All.

I don't want the office of Governor under any false pretenses. I tell you workingmen, just as I tell the capitalist, that you need not expect any special privilege from me if I am elected. I promise you nothing more than a square deal.—Theodore A. Bell, Watsonville, September 21st.

When Well-known Ukiah People Tell It so Plainly.

When pubilc endorsement is made by a representative citizen of Ukiah the proof is positive. You must believe it. Read this testimony. Every backache sufferer, every man, woman or child with any kidney trouble will find profit in the reading.

G. W. Jackson, 401 S. School Street, Ukiah, Cal., says: "I took many remedies for kidney trouble but was not helped until I procured Doan's Kidney Pills. I had to get up several times at night to pass the kidney secretions and I also suffered intensely from lameness and stiffeness across my back. Doan's Kidney Pills brought entire relief from these symptoms of kidney trouble and I was thus convinced of their merits." (Statement give Anugust 3, 1907.)

CONFIRMED PROOF.

On March 11, 1910, Mr. Jackson added to the above: "I have nothing to retract from my former endorsement of Doan's Kidney Pills. I am in my eighty-third year and like many other people of advance age, I am subject to spells of kidney trouble. I have found however, that Doan's Kidney Pills can be relied upon for relief."

Hopland, Oct 6.—Bud Beattie has purchased the Vassar house and is having it thoroughly renovated and is installing new furniture. He will conduct a first class boarding house in the future.

Dr. Staggs has moved his family from Hopland to the Jacobson place.

Our present and future Senator Sanford and District Attorney R. Duncan visited Hopland last Saturday evening and made very interesting addresses to the Democrats and some Republicans of this vicinity. Incidentally the tinkle of the "bell" has been heard ever since.

George Rhodes, the Republican candidate for school superintendent paid Hopland and vicinity a visit Saturday. George's friends greeted him warmly.

A farewell reception was held Monday evening in the M. E. church south in honor of Rev. J. Allen and wife who left Tuesday to attend the conference, not expecting to return.

Jack Brower candidate for Assessor paid Hopland a visit Wednesday.

The Hopland Union Grammar school opened Sept. 19 with twenty scholars more this year than last year. The school work is being done with the greatest interest this year partly owing to the generous donation of a complete manual training outfit, the fitting up a workshop and the gift of a Singer Sewing machine for the girls, by the teachers Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Williams. The old school house has been fitted up for the work and Hopland now has one of the most complete manual training shops in the county.

Mike Thomas visited Hopland Wednesday.

Mrs. Clendenin, who has been visiting in San Francisco for the last six weeks has returned home.

J. B. Meyers, who has been ailing for the past five weeks is reported slowly improving.

Frank Duncan who was quite ill last week is able to again be about. Frank hurt himself while hauling grapes.

The saloon of Garrat Kidd has been closed by his brother Ed Kidd.

Mrs. Stout has recently returned from Lake county where she had been spending the summer.

Miss Nellie Shields is confined to her home with typhoid fever.

Mr. Huett has returned from a week's vacation trip to San Francisco.

About all the grapes are harvested in this valley and have been disposed of for prices ranging from $7 to $15 per ton.

Fined $100

Deputy Sheriff H. B. Smith went over to Fish Rock this week and arrested D. Berry, who was caught selling liquor illegally by Constable Orr, of Cloverdale, last week. He had his hearing and was fined $100, a comparatively light penalty. He plead in extenuation that his license was pending before the Supervisors at the time he committed the crime.

The other men who were caught by Orr are expected over today, Deputy Sheriff Pat Connolly having gone to Fort Bragg to get them.

Will Move to Larger Quarters

S. F. Spear, the harness man, has completed arrangements for a three years' lease of the quarters recently vacated by Chris Bradford's harness shop in the old Donohoe building on North State Street and will move his stock there the last of the month. Mr. Spear's large and rapidly growing business has made the change imperative as his present quarters are much too small. He will make a few alterations in the building with a view to a better display of his wares and will put in a much larger stock than he has heretofore been able to handle on account of cramped quarters.

He is a first-class workman and has made many friends since coming to Ukiah by his low prices and courteous treatment of customers and they are all glad to note evidences of his prosperity.

Off for Seattle

Walter B. Dickie finished his contrat to build the Catholic church in McDowell valley the latter part of last week and on Saturday he and his wife departed for Seattle on their wedding trip which was deferred last month on account of business pressure. Their many friends here wish them god speed and hope that the trip will be thoroughly enjoyed.

THAT DEFICIT.

When I am working on my books to find out where I stand,
And figuring out how much I owe and counting cash on hand;
I'm mighty apt, in balancing, to find
before I quit,
In spite of all my anxious care
there is a deficit.

Of all the bogies that beset us mortals
here below,
This question of a deficit is far the worst I know.
The statesman trims his budget down,
he knows the rock that splits,
The ship of state is usually these same dread deficits.

Experience has shown us all it's just as Dickens said—
We're joyful when the balance brings us sixpence out ahead;
But when our income's sixpence short,
or as we say a "bit,"
We're plunged in deep despair once more by that blamed deficit.

It spurs us onward night and day,
pursues us in our dreams;
In spite of all our efforts it outweighs all other themes.
We may be brave in battle but it takes a lot of grit,
To look with equinimity upon a deficit.

It is the same old story from childhood to the grave, Expenses seem to double up the more we try to save;
And 'tis the one obsession, till our vital forces quit,
To pacify our creditors and dodge that
deficit.

If I had been permitted to shape my destiny,
And figure out the kind of man that I should like to be;
The Indian or the hobo would probably be it,
For they are never worrying about a deficit.

CIVILIZATION ONLY SKIN DEEP.

It is an old aphorism that civilization is only skin deep in man, and you have only to scratch him to get down to the savage. In reality it is not even skin deep and we differ from our ancestors only in education and culture. The young cannot inherit these characteristics and are savages pure and simple. Watch them at play and we see the law of the survival of the fittest, uninfluenced by the restraints of civilization. Children are cruel and vindictive by nature. Selfishness, craftiness, vanity and pugnacity are their dominant features. Watch them at play and see their reckless disregard of the rights of others. Physical force and prowness are requisite in order to hold ones own in the domain of childhood. The boy who has licked all the aspirants to the position of leader is the head of the gang and has their fealty and devotion until some huskier kid dethrowns him when he is ignominiously reduced to the ranks. The nearer to the savage that youth can get the happier he is. He disdains clothes and the unfortunate boy that pays any attention to his personal appearance is dubbed a sissy.

The female yields to the inevitable sooner than the male on account of her weaker nature but up to a certain period differs froom him in no particular in the force of heredity and reversion to type.

Man's hold upon civilization is precarious and each new generation has to be forced to adopt it. From birth it is a constant struggle to force the child into the habits of the age. His nature revolts against washing his ears, wearing hats and eating with forks. His invariable habit of leaving the doors open after him results from his inherited craving for fresh air.

Every step toward civilization is attended with tears expostulation and stripes. He never can do anything he wants nor do it in his own way. Not one of the innumerable laws of home, school or society appeal to him. They are all a part of the general conspiracy against his liberty and rights. He is born with the inherited instincts of a thousand savage ancestors and not one of the artificial traits of his civilized forbears descend to him. Put him back a million years among the naked barbarians of that period and he would be absolutely at home. He is not held back from playing hooky and going fishing by conscientious feelings but from a knowledge that he will get licked. His very soul longs for the life of a pirate or an Indian. His natural feelings are gradually strangled, stunted or dug out and he yields to the shackles of civilized life. We speak of the ages that separate us from savagery but in reality it is only a generation as each child is born into the world a prefect little savage, by nature ignorant, dirty, vicious, vain, cruel. If the educational influence were to stop for a single generation mankind would lapse into barbarism as profound as that of the cave men and the whole process of civilization would have to be commenced over again.

HARBINGERS OF THE MILLENNIUM.

The conventions of the Democratic and Republican parties this year were like performances of Hamlet without the noble Dane.

It was my privelege to witness the gathering of the Bourbons and it was a sight to make angels weep. When I entered the hall, I was on the point of backing out, thinking that I had made a mistake and intruded on a ministerial conference, everything being so quiet and peaceful; but a second look, revealing the presence of the old time Democratic war horses, dispelled my error and I took my seat among the expectant spectators. There were present, as delegates, about fifteen of the faithful, the balance of the convention being represented by a big basket of proxys. The new election law has left political conventions with nothing to do, reducing them to mere vermiform appendices and leaving neither glory nor profit to the push.

As the delegates proceeded with their work, with Chesterfieldian courtesy and the brotherly love of a missionary meeting, the spectators, who had expected the entertainment of former days, either silently withdrew or went to sleep, the exhibition being a frost similar to the Johnson-Jeffreys fiasco. The roll was called and the talkfest yroceeded with never a cheer or a fight to enliven it. The usual row over the committees was absent, every one seemed willing to step back for his neighbor, instead of swatting him, as in the old days. It was "after you Alphonse," until adjournment. No one was called a liar, nobody was licked, none thrown out by the sergeant at arms, and no one was given the double cross. The lion lay down with the lamb. Dr. Case seemed to think that he was opening a Lodge of Sorrow, as he has so often done and Bob Hutchison, tiptoeing around, imbued with the funeral spirit of the occasion, increased the mortuary aspect until one involuntarily looked around for the corpse. The flood of oratory which, in the good old days, used to loosen the shingles and shatter the windowpanes was conspicuous by its absence and J. C. Ruddock, Senator Sanford, Jack Weldon and the other spell binders never got out of the low gear. If the spirits of T. Jefferson, or A. Jackson were hovering over the hall they did not tarry long, as a harmonious Democratic convention, nominating nobody and doing nothing would have been too much of a pink tea for them.

The convention ambled prosaicly along, pervaded by the spirit of brotherly love, the only thing distinguishing it from the Presbyterian conference of two years ago being the ommission of the benediction. We are living in an era of smokeless powder and taseless castor oil and the next thing to be put upon the market will be jagless whiskey; but the most convincng evidence that the Millennium is at hand is the astounding demonstration that a Democratic convention can be run with cold, instead of hot, air.

PUT A TARIFT ON THEM.

Poets have been recently added to the list of "undesirable citizens" by the immigration authorities. William Peterson, a local celebrity among New York Scandinavians, who had lived in this country twelve years without taking out naturalization paper, has been ordered deported after a visit to Denmark. He had $24.00 in his pocket on his arrival and as he gave his occupation to be that of a poet the unsympathetic authorities are going to send him back with the vagrants anarchists, imbiciles etc. who came on the steamer with him. There is a touch of humor in the incident as Mr. Peterson delivered a lecture to his fellow voyagers, on the way over, on "America, and how to succeed there." If the Government will now turn its attention to the domestic product and put a ban on poets in general it will earn the gratitude of a long suffering public. By all means put Pegasus to the plow.

The Misses Hazel Basford and Frances Sacks and Dean Goodrich and Frank Hopkins were down from Potter valley last Saturday on a pleasure trip.

Geo. Gallagher and wife came over from Fort Bragg the latter part of last week. Mr. Gallagher is a prominent rancher of the Ten Mile section.

Chas. Lawson was over from Boonville the first of the week on business before the Board of Supervisors. He was awarded the contract for building the Little Lake and Long Valley road.

Constable Wm. Standley came over from Westport on business last Friday. Geo. Tracey, of the same place was also in town the same day.

A Drop In Rhetoric.

"I remember," said an official of the East Indian service, "the speech of an Anglo-Indian who was delegated by a certain district to place before the government's notice the horrible slaughter of their stock by tigers. A very noticeable titter could be heard in the audience when the delegate shouted very dramatically:

"'Mr. Chairman, the tiger is the most ferocious animal that prowls and runs at large in India. He creeps from his lurking place at the hour of midnight, when all nature is locked in the arms of Morpheus, and ere the portals of the east are unbound or bright Phoebus rises in his golden majesty whole litters of pigs are destroyed.'"

The Cat and the Tail.

Once upon a time a cat who prided herself on her wit and wisdom was prowling about the barn in search of food and saw a tail protruding from a hole.

"There is the conclusion of a rat," she said.

Then she crept stealthily toward it until within striking distance, when she made a jump and reached it with her claws. Alas, it was not the appendage of a rat, but the tail of a snake, who immediately turned and gave her a mortal bite.

Moral.—It is dangerous to jump at conclusions.

Hotel Insurance Against Robbery.

At a well known hostelry in Venice it is the practice to charge guests 25 centimes per diem for insurance against fire and robbery, the amount covered for this premium being 1,500 francs. This is a very convenient arrangement, as robbery is far from uncommon in Italy.—London Truth.

A Pugilistic Feat.

"Clancy, who give yez th' black eye yez have?"

"If I knew I'd lick 'im.'

"Sure, an' don't yez know?'

"How c'd I know? M. Veck was turned at th' toime."—Toledo Blade.

What He Got.

"What're ye comin' home with your milk pail empty for?" demanded the farmer. "Didn't the old cow give anything?"

"Yep," replied the chore boy, "nine quarts and one kick!"—Exchange.

THEODORE A. BELL AND THE SCHOOLS

When Theodore A. Bell delivered his famous speech at the Central Theatre September 3rd, he made his position quite clear as to the school system of the State. Mr. Bell made it clear that there is no more important function performed by the State than that of educating its boys and girls, said Mr. Bell. "The State must have its ideals in education; there must be certain different things to be attained. Our highest aim must be to prepare the individual for a social union with his fellow men that will mean to the entire group the highest possible good."

Within each mind reside the potential elements of higher character of fine manhood or womanhood, and mindful of the possible unfolding of this character we set about to build school houses and to employ teachers in order that this may actually take place. It is not so much a question of cramming a child's brain with multiplication tables, rules of grammar and historical events, as it is one of developing the inherent powers in the mind and heart along the lines that will best equip every growing child with the essential traits of honesty, industry, and unselfishness, thus making for a self-respecting, self-supporting career and useful citizenship. Every child must be deemed a special ward of the State, for in a few years these children will be the State. Not a single child should be permitted to grow up in California without at least a common education. The State must reach out by compulsion as well as by invitation to every child within its borders, and never rest content until every boy and girl shall be found in one school or another.

We have a good system in California. It can be made better. Improvements suggest themselves every day, and we must not permit an opportunity to pass by unheeded. We must build more school houses, not only to accommodate our increasing population, but for the purpose of reducing the number of children assigned to any one teacher.

The greatest value comes from the personal attention that the teacher can give to the individual pupil. This is lost in overcrowded rooms. Teachers must be carefully selected and well paid. Teaching is one of the noblest professions. Everybody is not fitted to be a teacher, and too much care cannot be taken in admitting applicants to the profession. When admitted and assigned to the delicate task of instructing the young, their compensation should be commensurate with the important work they are performing.

I am heartily in favor of manual training in our schools and the departments in our high schools and universities where useful trades and arts and occupations may be taught. In every school it should be drilled into the minds of our boys and girls that all labor is honorable, no matter how plain or unattractive it may be. If we wish to preserve America from the bane of aristocratic ideas and institutions, our children must be taught early in life that men and women are to be measured by their moral worth and merit, and not by the occupations they pursue. When this idea is thoroughly inculcated in their minds, the next step is to show them that any honorable occupation opens the ways to happiness and contentment. Pride in their labor, the sense of expressing themselves in their work, the satisfaction of doing something that is of value to the world, the self-respect that comes from being self-supporting, the independence they enjoy, all these things and many others render it possible for all to lead a happy existence be their trade or occupation what it may.

MOTHER'S VISIT.

The Old Lady Meant Well, but She Got a Severe Shock.

An old fashioned woman from the country recently packed some fried chicken, bread and doughnuts in a market basket and went to see her daughter, who lives in a big city. She was scandalized when the family stayed up till 11 o'clock and decided that she wouldn't tell pa about it when she wrote home next day. "He might think we have fallen into evil ways," she said to herself as she was going off to sleep.

She awoke at her usual time, 4 o'clock, and the house seemed strangely quiet. "Town folks do get lazy," she thought, "and they probably don't get up till 5." She dressed and went downstairs and watched the clock until 5. Not a sound. Then she waited till 6, and at 7, between hunger and alarm, she was almost crazed. "They've been murdered in their beds!" she yelled at 8 o'clock from the front steps. And soon the house was filled with people rushing in to see what had happened.

The family were surprised and indignant when police, market gardeners, newsboys, etc., rushed into their bedrooms and woke them up. And this explains why the old fashioned woman came home that day. "I never expected," she sobbed to pa, "that any girl would talk to her ma as Jane talked to me."—Atchison Globe.

Had a Better Story.

"Did you see the account of that flash of lightning that burned the hair from a boy's head without otherwise hurting him?"

"I did," answered the cheerful liar, "and I was pained to note the incompleteness of the story. Now, I happen to know of a case that is really remarkable. The lightning entered a barber's shop and not only undertook the task of singeing a man's hair, but it rung up the proper amount on the cash register."

Rachel's Onion.

I was amused by the observations of a retired actress who sat beside me at the Conservatoire examinations and in an undertone thought aloud as the recitations went on.

"Why so much weeping and wringing of the hands?" she said of a candidate attempting Andromaque. "How she spoils her nice young face in attempting to force tears from her eyes! At this distance nobody could scent an onion in her pocket handkerchief. Rachel resorted to that trick in 'Adrienne Lecouvreur,' and the tears flowed freely without facial contortions. I heard it said that as she left the stage she gave the onion she held to Prince Napoleon to eat in salad and that he did so."—Paris Letter to London Truth.

Ukiah, - - California

James E. Pemberton, Democratic Nominee for Attorney General, was put forward for the position by his many friends throughout California who believe that in this sterling citizen people will find a faithful servant. Mr. Pemberton is considered one of the ablest lawyers in California, having an extensive practice in San Francisco. In addition to his office in San Francisco, he maintains an office in Ukiah. His early life was spent upon a ranch in Potter Valley. In 1880 he began teaching school, in 1886 graduated from Hastings' Law College. Shortly afterward he opened an office in Mendocino county.

In 1892 he was elected District Attorney of Mendocino county and went to Ukiah, the county seat. Soon after he entered into partnership with Senator J. H. Seawell which continued until the latter's death in 1902. Mr. J. E. Pemberton is considered by those who have had best opportunity to judge, to be especially fitted for the office to which his party has nominated him, as the practice in the county which gave to the bar Judge Cooper of the Appellate Court and Judge Sturtevant of the Superior Court gave Mr. Pemberton a varied experience in all phases of legal business. Two years ago Mr. Pemberton was put forward by his friends as a candidate for Associate Justice of the Supreme Court but he magnanimously withdrew in favor of Judge Frank J.

JAMES E. PEMBERTON
Democratic Nominee for Attorney General

Murasky of San Francisco. For years Mr. Pemberton has been an aggressive and active Democrat. He is always to be found at State Conventions and usually serves on important committees. His political and legal advice is often sought and his judgment is seldom questioned. He led the fight in Mendocino county for Franklin K. Lane for Governor, and Theodore A. Bell for Congress and at that election the county was carried by each of these candidates although before and since it has been Republican.

Mr. Pemberton will be elected as much by Republican votes as by Democratic votes as most electors of the State desire a change in past conditions and assuring themselves that the election of Theodore A. Bell is a foregone conclusion, they will cast their ballots for Mr. Pemberton for Attorney General, in preference to his opponent who was renominated four years ago by the notorious Santa Cruz convention, the same convention which nominated Gillett who was Theodore A. Bell's opponent four years ago, and who was at that time assiduously supported by the distinguished gentlemen who are now so strenuously warring under the banners of Reform.

The office of Attorney General is a very important one. To the Attorney General the Governor looks for his legal advice on matters that are too intricate and too perplexing for the Governor to spend his time upon and he is the legal adviser provided by law for the Governor's office and for all State offices. He may when the public welfare in his opinion so demands or when the Governor so orders, temporarily supercede any District Attorney in person or by his deputy, take charge of any criminal case even in the lower courts.

He is a member of the Board of Examiners which audits and passes upon all bills against the State Treasury, the Governor and the Secretary of State being the other members thereof. The same officers also constitute the State Board of Forestry. The Attorney General has very important duties to perform in connection with other boards and officials, it being his special duty by statute to prosecute for violations of the Cartwright Anti-Trust law, and so it needs no further argument to convince our readers that the Attorney General should be made the subject of a most careful selection because of the great power he wields in the conduct of affairs in the State government.

UKIAH, CALIFORNIA, FRIDAY, OCT. 7, 1910.

BELL'S SPEECH

I pledge the uttermost strength, energy and vigor of mind and body to the task of forever eliminating the Southern Pacific political influence.

The Southern Pacific must be regulated and the grain and fruit shippers protected from extortionate rates.

On the subject of taking our judiciary out of politics, of eliminating the party circles from our ballot of electing United States Senators by direct vote of the people, of securing direct legislation, of reforming our criminal procedure of amending our present primary law to permit a less cumbersome expression of the popular will, establishing a reformatory for first offenders, I am in hearty accord with my party.

As to the initiative, referendum and recall particularly, I believe in the inherent right of the people to initiate legislation, their prerogative to pass decisive judgment on legislation and their undoubted right to repudiate derelict and dishonest officials.

I believe implicitly in the organization of labor. Tradeunionism has incalcuably improved the lot of millions of human beings. It came in response to a law of necessity, and it will remain so as to bless myriads of homes where, after the heat and burden of the day, men of toil retire to share their reward with wife and child. This organization of labor has won for the men who toil, a shorter day, a better wage and greater security to life and limb.

I shall remove State hospitals, prisons, schools and other public institutions from politics.

I am for a reformatory for first offenders.

I shall labor unceasingly for the Panama-Pacific Exposition in San Francisco.

Our criminal pocedure must be reformed.

I will urge that our present primary law be amended so it will be less cumbersome.

REPUBLICAN PLATFORM

The Republican party of California repudiates the dominating influence heretofore exercised in the councils of the party organization and in the conduct of the government of the State by the Southern Pacific railroad and allied corporations.

We recognize the service of all transportation companies and we make no attack on the legitimate business of the Southern Pacific railroad or any other corporation.

We recommend the restoration of the true Australian ballot as originally enacted in California, without party circle or party column.

The placing of the names of judicial candidates on the primary and general election ballots without party designation.

We recommend the enactment by the next Legislature, and transmission to Congress, of an act or joint resolution favoring an amendment to the Constitution of the United States providing for the election of United States Senators by the direct vote of the people, and pending the adoption of this federal amendment such a revision of the primary law of the State as shall afford a State-at-large advisory vote as to the election of United States Senators.

We recommend the submission to the people of constitutional amendments providing for direct legislation in the State and in county and local governments, through the initiative, the referendum and the recall.

We recognize that the wage earner has the same right to organize for the improvement of the conditions under which he labors that the capitalist has to use his capital to corporate enterprises. Both forms of organization should be given equal opportunity before the law to carry out their legitimate aims.

We recommend the elimination of partisan patronage from the administrative departments of government and in general the introduction of the merit system in the public services.

We recommend the enactment of laws for the establishment in California of a modern reformatory for first offenders.

We endorse the proposed Panama Canal Exposition and urge on Congress the recognition of the claims of San Francicso as the proper location for such an exposition.

We recommend such revision of the laws of criminal procedure in this State as shall make the administration of justice more speedy and certain.

In practice the present primary law has shown itself cumbersome and complicated in some of its details. We recommend to the next Legislature such simplifications of the law as may be found practicable.

They have extended invitations to their many friends to come and partake of their feast.

Cultus Club Begins Year

The Cultus Club held its first meeting for the year of 1910 last Tuesday evening at the home of its president, Mrs. E. G. Case.

Mrs. Case is always a delightful entertainer and on this occasion she excelled herself.

After the business before the club was disposed of the program was opened by the hostess by a "Psalm of Club Life", original with her. It was much appreciated.

The evening was a Shakespeare evening, as Shakespeare is the major subject for the winter's work. A most interesting and instructive sketch of Shakespeare's life was given by Mrs. W. P. Thomas, followed by three musical numbers consisting of two vocal and one instrumental selection—"Heartsease", charmingly sung by Miss Jocie Ames; an original transposition of the instrumental duet, "Midsummer Night's Dream," by Mrs. H. B. Smith and Mrs. John Preston, which showed marked ability on the part of the performers; and "Under the Greenwood Tree," soulfully sung in the sweet contralto voice of Mrs. Lucy Seawell.

The three gems of Shakespeare—Portia's mercy speech, Hamlet's soliloquy and Juliet's potion scene—were given costume. Mrs. Barker gave the first with great force and marked ability; Dr. Lathrop-Malpas delivered the second with great depth of feeling and appreciation of the part, and Mrs. Weldon rendered the third most realistically and with a fine display of her marked talent along these lines. Her representaton of Juliet was unsurpassable.

The souvenirs of the occasion were printed programs whch had been most artistically arranged by Mrs. Case.

The next meetng of the club will be held at the residence of Mrs. Weldon Oct. 18.

Lester Cox went to San Francisco last Sunday and assumed his duties the first of the week in a garage in that city. Mrs. Cox went down Wednesday to join him and make arrangements to go to housekeeping. Ukiah regrets to loose this popular young couple who have so long been a part of its social and industrial life, and their many friends in this city will wish them prosperity.

A Young Hunter

Wes. Rickard, Jr., the six year old son of W. L. Rickard, of Ornbaun, has already gotten the limit this year. The young fellow killed a fine "four pointer" and a spike on the "Cudge" Elkins ranch this summer and would have killed more but was informed that that was all the law allowed him to kill. Who can beat this youthful hunter?

I hereby notify the public that I will not be responsible for any bills contracted on or after this date by my wife.
